

What they're saying about John Mandeville & the We Belong To Heaven Release:

"I have been a fan of John Mandeville's writing and artistry for years. His music and talent is worthy of reaching the largest audience possible."

- David Preston (BMI)

"Armed with an uplifting, guitar centered sound along the lines of Chris Tomlin with the electronic elements of the David Crowder Band and tender piano reflections, We Belong To Heaven is a remarkably humble but instantly attachable album."

- Andy Argyrakis (CCM Online)

"I've known John for years - he always puts his heart into his music and it's obvious he did with this album. It's honest and real."

- Micah Wilshire of The Wilshires (CBS recording artist/producer)

"In a world of illusions We Belong to Heaven is the real thing. John Mandeville is a voice of uncompromising truth; an artist of profound depth, immense skill and compelling passion."

- Steve Siler (Dove-award winning songwriter, producer)

"John is a man of deep thought and uplifting words. There is substance beneath what he says, borne of conviction and connection to a higher influence. He is a beautiful and engaging performer and writer because that's who he is."

- Pamela Phillips Oland (Grammy award-winning lyricist)

"John has it all - great songs, brilliant vocals, and he delivers live. Passionate and memorable, John Mandeville is an artist you don't want to miss!"

- Scott Krippayne (Dove-award winning songwriter, recording artist)

"John Mandeville has truly been given a gift to connect people with God through his music. His music is instantaneously powerful, capturing seamless beauty through the melodies of life with each song he writes. I've never known a time in John's life when he hasn't been relevant. His music stands the test of time and continues to have a sense of immediacy and a tone of timelessness."

- Tammy Trent (Recording Artist/Author/Speaker)

"After co-writing with someone, you can always count on getting past the veneer & stealing a peek into their soul. To me, John's up there with that rare group of purely motivated, insanely gifted artist/writers."

- Marty Magehee (Dove-award winning artist, songwriter, formerly of 4Him)

"I've had the honor of knowing John for years and I can honestly say that his music is a true representation of his person. It's vulnerable, heartfelt and consumed with praise and leading others into worship. If you don't have John's CD you need to purchase several, give them to friends and prepare to enter into the Lord's presence."

- Hayden Mieth

CEO GOODBYE EGO MGMT
and member of KNAPSACKHEROES!

"Maybe the greatest compliment one fellow veteran songwriter and artist can pay another is to say I wish I'd written some of John's songs myself. No, how about ALL of them !!!"

- Alan Roy Scott (Grammy-award winning songwriter/producer)

"John Mandeville has a heart after God. His music helps you into worship, making worship a lifestyle in your daily walk."

- Jeff Adams, President, 2:20 Entertainment Group
